

Renewing Your HIP Coverage

Timeline Key

- Before Eligibility Period End Date
- Eligibility Period End Date
- After Eligibility Period End Date
- Lockout Period

If your health coverage isn't renewing automatically, you will get a letter from FSSA with an Eligibility Review form inside. Follow all instructions so you don't lose your coverage!

Your Eligibility Review form is due back to FSSA, if required to return.

Eligibility Period End Date

Last date that you can choose to start making POWER Account contributions and enroll in HIP Plus.

If you did not renew your coverage by this time, you won't have coverage and won't be able to apply again for 90 days.

If you turn in your form late or fail to turn in your form you could lose your health coverage or have a gap in coverage.

Reminder letter sent to you by MDwise.*

*You may also get reminders from MDwise through call, text or email as it gets closer to the end of your eligibility period.

If you turned your Eligibility Review form in on time and were shown to still be eligible, you will be sent information on your new eligibility period.

Last date you can turn your Eligibility Review form in to restore your coverage.

If you have any questions or need help with the Eligibility Review form, please call us at 1-800-356-1204.

You can also come to one of our MDwise Health Benefits Connection events in your area. We will help you fill out the Eligibility Review form and answer any questions you may have. Make sure you bring your Eligibility Review form and verification of the last 30 days of household income. Go to MDwise.org/RenewEvents to find an event in your area.