

GOT HEALTH COVERAGE?

Hoosier Healthwise or the Healthy Indiana Plan (HIP)
may be the answer.

GET HEALTH COVERAGE!

You could qualify for Hoosier Healthwise if:

- You are a child under the age of 19 living in a low-income household.
- You qualify for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and/or food stamps (SNAP).
- You are a pregnant woman not already enrolled in or eligible for the Healthy Indiana Plan.

You could qualify for HIP if you meet all of the following requirements:

- You are between the ages of 19–64.
- You are not eligible for other Indiana Health Coverage Programs or Medicare.
- You are a pregnant woman.

How do I apply?

Contact an enrollment center near you to help complete your application. The central Indiana locations are listed inside this brochure. To apply online, go to in.gov/fssa/dfr/2999.htm and click on your county.

Take with you to the enrollment center the following documents:

- Social Security numbers for all applicants.
- Proof of identification: driver's license, state-issued ID or school ID.
- Proof of U.S. citizenship/residency: birth certificate, U.S. passport or Alien Registration card.
- Proof of all income: pay stubs, child support, employer statements, unemployment, disability payments, income tax forms.
- Proof of private health insurance: insurance card or policy number (if applicable).
- Proof of pregnancy: written statement from medical professional (if applying for pregnancy coverage).
